

Instructor's Bio | Cathy DeMartinis, PT

Cathy DeMartinis has more than 25 years of experience in the health care industry. Her core areas of expertise are Medicare regulation and documentation standards as they relate to physical, occupational, and speech therapy.

Course Description

Documenting for Success provides participants with basic Medicare regulatory knowledge pertaining to both coverage guidelines and documentation standards. The various high impact documentation components will be discussed in depth with examples provided to facilitate understanding of Medicare documentation requirements.

Participants will be able to state three therapist action verbs appropriate for a skilled intervention statement, state three high impact components of documentation, identify two potential triggers for a RAC audit, and identify an appropriate comment for the subjective section of a SOAP note.
